The Nonprofit Chamber of Service on Tuesday was named Wichita State University's employer of the year.

The award is given annually in conjunction with the university's cooperative education program. Companies are nominated by student employees.

The nonprofit chamber was one of 21 employers nominated.

Also on Tuesday, WSU named Dee Pritchett, who works in WSU's school of community affairs, its faculty advisor of the year.

The Workforce Alliance of Southcentral Kansas won the employer of the year award in 2008, while Amy Devault won the faculty award.
